

Realism:

A style of art in which figures and scenes are depicted as they are experienced or might be experienced in everyday life. In other words, they look and seem real.

